

Dear NW Patrons,

We miss not being able to meet with you. We hope you and your families are managing these virus measures. If you have any questions or needs please send us a note at nwpatrons@gmail.com. We are holding off scheduling any events for our chapter until we are clear of this virus. We have included below the latest news from the Rome Patrons office. The Vatican museums are closed. The museum staff and Rome Patrons staff is managing their virus measures. The Rome newsletter includes virtual tours of the museum that you can enjoy.

At this time consider looking at the completed restorations in the new International Patrons website (<http://www.patronsvaticanmuseums.org/en/projects/ >). May they inspire you to pray for the end of this virus and for the safety of all our Patrons' families.

Be safe and God bless you and your family,

Gabe and the NW Patrons leaders

Vatican Patrons Parcel

In the past month of February, Father Kevin Lixey, LC made a three week trip to the United States. He visited Georgia, Tennessee, Florida, and Texas to meet with various Patrons and Patrons leadership members in these various states.

He offered a PowerPoint presentation on the significance of the Year of Raphael 2020 in the Vatican Museums and underlined the important role our Patrons play in restoring Raphael Sanzio's works of art. He gave this presentation to existing Patrons and those who are interested in learning more about the organization in the following cities: Atlanta, Palm Beach, Houston, Austin, and Dallas.

He is grateful to the chapter leaders (Carolyn Johnson, Mary Viator, and Lori and Doug Wrinkle) who helped organize and underwrite these events, in addition to our North American Chaplain, Monsignor Hogan, who hosted Father Kevin at his parish, Mary Help of Christians in Parkland Florida.
